

FOCUS ON TOMORROW . . . Construction on the new Southwest Superior Courts building in the Torrance Civic Center has progressed to a point where passersby can now begin to see the magnitude of the project which, when completed next year, will make Torrance the focal point of legal activity for the entire Greater Southwest area. The court will accommodate as many as 12 Superior Court judges and supporting administrative personnel when completed. (Press-Herald Photo)

Fred Yunt Wins Award In Science

Award of the 1965 Bausch and Lomb Science Medal at South High School to Fred Yunt, a senior, was announced today by Dr. John A. Lucas, principal.

"These awards are truly significant," Dr. Lucas said. "Everyone realizes the importance of the study of science."

The Bausch and Lomb Science Medal is presented annually to the outstanding senior science student at high schools throughout the nation.

Yunt was born in Arizona but came to Torrance when he was in the second grade. He attended Hillside Elementary School. During his four years at South High, he has taken nearly every course in science and mathematics offered by the school.

A member of the California Scholarship Federation, he is an active Boy Scout and holds the rank of Life Scout. Yunt plays tennis for the Spartan varsity team and enjoys the piano.

ELEVATED . . . Robert Penman, 22726 Nadine Circle, has been assigned as assistant manager of Bank of America's Pacific-Fruitland branch in Vernon. He was formerly assistant cashier at the Motor Center branch in Los Angeles.

Doubleheaders Highlight of Basketball

A pair of interesting basketball doubleheaders will be played at Torrance and North High gymnasiums Friday and Saturday evenings.

Friday's double-bill at Tarverville pits North against El Segundo at 7 p.m. and Torrance against West in a second game.

The scene switches to North High Saturday where El Segundo and Torrance clash in the prelude and North goes against West in the nightcap.

The four schools played a prominent role in last weekend's Pacific Shores Tournament at Redondo.

Parent Charges Discipline Problems Exist in School

Torrance school officials were ordered to look into alleged disciplinary problems at Arlington Elementary School following the appearance of a parent at the Monday meeting of the Board of Education. Trustees asked Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools, and his staff to investigate the allegations and submit a report to the board.

W. D. Harmon, in a letter which he read to the board, charged gangs of students were beating up other students. Harmon also said the gangs were occupying restrooms and excluding others.

Harmon said such incidents had been going on at the school since he first moved to the area six years ago. "Most of the parents," he ad-

"Middle age is when a broad mind and a narrow waist change places."
